

The background of the cover is an impressionistic painting of a river scene. The sky is filled with large, textured clouds in shades of blue, yellow, and white. The water in the river is rendered with visible brushstrokes in various colors, including blue, green, and yellow, reflecting the sky. On the left bank, there is a small, simple house with a dark roof. A small boat is visible in the distance on the river.

The third issue of the annual series Psychology in Russia: State of the Art presents a collection of articles which reflect the current directions of research in Russian psychology. This volume samples a range of theoretical and methodological works together with empirical studies in cognitive and social psychology, psychophysiology, labor, developmental and educational psychology, clinical and personality psychology, and psychoanalysis.

This yearbook will be of interest to psychologists, philosophers, and educational researchers, as well as anyone concerned with the recent achievements of the psychological science.
