
British embassy hosts graduation

The British embassy in Moscow this month hosted a graduation ceremony for students of the International Colledge of Economics and Finance (ICEF) affiliated to Higher School of Economics in Moscow. In all 82 bachelors and 20 masters had been studying on the joint Russian-British programme and received diplomas from both their Moscow colledge and University of London. ICEF was established in 1997 and united best the British and Russian academic traditions. Education is both in English and Russian and students pass University of London final exams. Most of the bachelor graduates continue their education abroad.

In 2010, ICEF was awarded the status of Affiliate Centre of the University of London International Programmes and has recently established an international lab for finance and economic research.
