

Urban Space
and Changing
Historical Culture

HISTORICITY

Poletayev Institute for Theoretical and Historical Studies in the Humanities
National Research University Higher School of Economics

International conference

HISTORICITY: URBAN SPACE AND CHANGING HISTORICAL CULTURE

Conference program

Moscow, May 23-24, 2014

May 23 room 311
	10.30—11.00		Registration is open
	11.00—11.10		Welcoming words by Irina Savelieva , director of the Poletayev Institute for Theoretical and Historical Studies in the Humanities
	11.10—12.00	Keynote lecture Julie Buckler Harvard University, Cambridge, MA	Urban Studies and Urban Humanities: Reconceptualizing the Field for an Interdisciplinary Digital Age
	12.00—12.20	Coffee break
		Session 1 Chair: Natalia Samutina
	12.20—12.50	Ewa Bérard CNRS-ENS, Paris	Urban Heritage or Historical Monument: Conflicting Urban Cultures?
	12.50—13.20	Oksana Zaporozhets IGITI HSE, Moscow	Describing Urban Polytemporality: from Technology of the Future to the Museum of Urban Materiality, and other Conversions of Moscow Metro
	13.20—13.50	Ayse Ereğ Yeditepe University, Istanbul	Contemporary Creative Reflections on Istanbul as a Historical City
	13.50—14.20	Svetlana Ereemeeva RSUH, Moscow	Urbi et orbi: Russian Orthodox Church as an Actor in the Urban Apace
	14.20—15.20	Lunch
		Session 2 Chair: Oksana Zaporozhets
	15.20—15.50	Alisa Maximova CFS HSE, Moscow	Bringing Together the Meanings of Polytechnic Museum: Different Interpretative Contexts and Images of Museum's Future Development
	15.50—16.20	Andrey Vozyanov EU, Saint-Petersburg	Where Can Exhibits Speak for Themselves? A Critical Cartography of the Museumified City
	16.20—16.50	Yulia Kamaeva LabCultPro, Moscow	The System of Heritage Management in Minor Historical Towns of the 'Golden Ring'
	16.50—17.20	Alexander Makhov IGITI HSE, Moscow	History and City – Sense of the Past Beyond Great Narrative
		Short break
	17.30—18.15	Natalia Samutina Boris Stepanov IGITI HSE, Moscow	Multitemporality of the Museum-Reserve "Tsaritsyno". Presentation of the book: "Tsaritsyno: Attractions with History" (2014) / Eds. N. Samutina, B. Stepanov. M.: New Literary Observer

	18.15—20.30	Welcome reception at Professorial Hall (room 300)
May 24 room 309
	11.00—12.00	Keynote lecture Eve Blau Harvard University, Cambridge, MA	Urban Research Between History, Theory, and Practice: Project Zagreb
	12.00—12.20	Coffee break
		Session 3 Chair: Kirill Levinson
	12.20—12.50	Eszter Gantner Humboldt University, Berlin	From Electropolis to the Art – Production of Metropolisness in the Case of Berlin
	12.50—13.20	Yulia Biedash School of Cultural Studies HSE, Moscow	Cosmic Moscow: Patriotic Tourism and New Iconography of the City
	13.20—13.50	Luke Dickens The Open University, Milton Keynes	Displaced Encounters with the Working Class City: Digitization, Materiality and Practices of Community Memory at the Salford Lads’ Club
	13.50—14.20	Alexandra Kolesnik IGITI HSE, Moscow	Mapping the Past: Popular Music Memoryscapes of Liverpool
	14.20—15.20	Lunch
		Session 4 Chair: Natalia Samutina / Oksana Zaporozhets
	15.20—15.50	Yulia Lajus Center for Historical Research, HSE, Saint- Petersburg	Fisheries in St. Petersburg: Forgotten history of City-River Interaction
	15.50—16.20	Anna Tolkachova Polina Ermolaeva Institute for the Comparative Studies of Modernity, Kazan	City at the Crossroads of History and Mega-Events: Constructing the New Image of Kazan
	16.20—16.50	Greg Yudin LSES HSE, Moscow Yulia Koloshenko HSE, Moscow	Tale and tradition: Different Mechanics of Producing Touristic Experience in a Small Town
	16.50—17.20	Pavel Kupriyanov IEA RAS, Moscow	Constructing Historical Space in a Small Town: Case of Cherdyn (Perm region)
	17.20—17.50	Vladimir Fajer IGITI HSE, Moscow	Anti-Urban Architecture: Fictional Mediaeval Space in a Moscow Suburb
	17.50—18.20	Kirill Levinson IGITI HSE, Moscow	Heimwehtouristen and the Transformation of Local Historical Culture: a Case Study
	18.20—18.30	The closure of the conference	