

A large, stylized hourglass is centered on the page. The top bulb is empty, while the bottom bulb contains a silhouette of a monument with a rectangular base and four steps. A small, dark, irregular shape, resembling a relic or a piece of debris, is positioned in the narrow neck of the hourglass, with a trail of small dots suggesting it is falling from the top bulb into the bottom one.

ISA Research Committee on the History of Sociology
Interim
Conference

Monuments, Relics and Revivals

Warsaw
July 6-8
2016

Conference venue:
University of Warsaw,
College of Liberal Arts,
Dobra 72, Warsaw, Poland

Wednesday, July 6

9:00 -10:30 Registration

10:30 - 11:00 Conference opening

11:00 - 12:15 Keynote paper room No. 1

Gina ZABLUDOVSKY-KUPER, Toward a global history of sociology

Chair: Charles Crothers

12:15 -13:30 Lunch break

13:30 - 15:10 Parallel sessions:

1. History on the Methods of Empirical Social Research and Statistics I room No. 9

Chair: Irmela Gorges

Frederico ÁGOAS, Early social research in a late industrial country: the case of Portugal

Shinichi AIZAWA, The Postwar history of children and poverty in Japan: from social research data from 1952 to 2000s

Charlotte BROOKFIELD, What does it add up to? The place of quantification in British sociology

Hynek JERÁBEK, Du Bois and his model of empirical social research in the years 1897 – 1910

2. History of Sociology in Comparative Perspective: State Socialism and Transition I room No. 1

Chair: Matthias Duller

Iza DESPERAK, Forgetting Marx and Marxists: Poland and other East European post-Communist legacy

Alexander DMITRIEV, Soviet sociology in search of its own Past(s)

Marek SKOVAJSA, The Polish connection: how the Ford Foundation's exchange program with Poland affected Czech sociology of the 1960s

15:10 - 15:40 Coffee break

15:40 - 18:10 Parallel sessions:

1. History on the Methods of Empirical Social Research and Statistics II / Sociology and War room No. 9

Chair: Irmela Gorges

Jennifer PLATT, Structure and cohort in British sociology: making the best of an accidental historical source

Antoni SUŁEK, The Polish career of "The American Soldier"

Chairs: Łukasz Dominiak, Włodzimierz Winclawski

Friedrich CAIN, The occupied city as a sociological laboratory. Developing and applying social psychology in Warsaw 1939-1945

Maria FERENC-PIOTROWSKA, "Two and a half years of war": unfinished research project in Warsaw ghetto

Andreas KRANEBITTER, "Our classroom methodological prescriptions do not fit easily the problems of studying the SS and their doings" –

Elmer G. Lucherhand's research on Nazi concentration camps

2. History of Sociology in Comparative Perspective: State Socialism and Transition II room No. 1

Chair: Matthias Duller

Sven ELIAESON, Neoliberalism and civil society: the Swedish model in comparative perspective

Andreas HESS, Stalinism and collective Memory: Zygmunt Bauman's "liquid memory" in perspective

Jarosław KILIAS, Polish sociology speaks in foreign languages (Speaking mostly to itself)

Agnieszka KOLASA-NOWAK, Polish sociology between the project of organized development and the idea of return to normality

18:15 Conference dinner (conference venue)

Thursday, July 7

9.00-10.15 Parallel sessions:

1. History of Sociology in Comparative Perspective: State Socialism and Transition III room No. 1

Chair: Matthias Duller

Łukasz BŁOŃSKI, Polish Sociology in 60s: new pathways or Centre's imitation?

Vítězslav SOMMER, From social technology to social critique? Politics of sociology in late socialist Czechoslovakia (1970s–1980s)

Tomasz WARCZOK, The international circulation of ideas: Polish sociology and the world field of social sciences (1956-1980)

2. Institutionalization of Social Science room No. 9

Chair: Christian Dayé

Dušan JANÁK, Milestones of institutionalization of sociology in Central Europe before WWII in a comparative perspective
Per WISSELGREN, Organizational Complementarity and/or rivalry?: IIS vs. ISA – and UNESCO's SSD as a (partly partisan) mediator of early Cold War international sociology

Agata ZYSIAK, Sociology and postwar experiment of building socialist university in industrial city of Lodz, Poland

10.15-10.45 Coffee break

10.45-12.00 Keynote paper room No. 1

Georges MINK, Sociology faces totalitarian and post-totalitarian regimes in Central Europe (1945-1989)

Chair: Joanna Wawrzyniak

12.00-13:15 Lunch break

13.15-15.20 Parallel sessions:

1. Histories of Sociology in the Global South room No. 9

Chairs: Fran Collyer, João Marcelo E. Maia

Charles CROTHERS, Memorialising early social science work in the antipodes

João Marcelo Ehler MAIA, Peripheral journals: a case study from Latin America

Diego Ezequiel PEREYRA, Caution, sociologists working in Argentina! What did they really do after graduation during the 1960s and 1970s?

Lidiane Soares RODRIGUES, Marxism in Brazilian university: what a ranking has to say

Elisabeth SIMBÜRGER, 'Global sociology? That is something from Europe.' Unfolding Chilean sociology: beyond statements of eurocentrism and Latin American essentialism

2. Comparing and Contrasting Classics room No. 1

Chair: Raf Vanderstraeten

Marcia Cristina CONSOLIM, Georges Dumas and the distinction between sociology and psychology

Barbara GRÜNING, Before and after 1989: Arendt's reception in the social sciences in Germany and Italy

Śławomir KAPRALSKI, Sociology and monotheism: the idea of social unity as the holy relic of social theory and its silent revival

Anders PEDERSSON, A collaboration of the past? Racial biological and sociological perspectives converging in early 20th century Sweden

Mitsuhiro TADA, Imagined linguistic community: Max Weber and his view of language

15.20-15.50 Coffee break

16.00-17.30 ISA RCHS Business meeting room No. 1

18.30 ISA RCHS Dinner (Restaurant "Sardynia", Oboźna 9)

Friday, July 8

9.00-11.05 Parallel sessions:

1. Classification & Categorization: Historical Perspectives on the Sociological Making of Society I room No. 9

Chairs: Léa Renard, Alexander Knoth

Fabienne CHAMELOT, Archival classification in French colonial context

Borys CYMBROWSKI, From humanities to (social) science: the development of sociology's relationship with history and literature and its consequences

Christopher DONOHUE, Social selection in America: from James Mark Baldwin to Pitirim Sorokin, towards a "demarcation" of nature and society

Kristoffer KROPP, Europe in European Social Surveys

Dominika MICHALAK, "Proper readers" and the rest: how researchers of the National Library of Poland classified readers in the years 1980-2015

2. Social and Institutional Conditions of Success in Sociology and Social Sciences I room No. 1

Chairs: Thibaud Boncourt, Victor Karady

Giuseppe BIANCO, Céléstin Bouglé and Georges Canguilhem: a forgotten chapter in French sociology's contribution to the development of "historical epistemology"

Dirk KAESLER, Max Weber never was mainstream, but who made him a classic of sociology?

Victor KARADY, Sociology in the system of social sciences after the Stalinist backlash, under “real socialism” and the democratic regime change in Hungary (1950-2014): recruitment and achievement patterns

Carmelo LOMBARDO, Lorenzo SABETTA, Interpreting one's life sociologically: the cases of Merton and Bourdieu

11.05-11.35 Coffee break

11.35-13.05 Author meets critics room No. 1

Christian Dayé, Stephan Moebius (eds.) Soziologiegeschichte: Wege und Ziele, Suhrkamp 2015.

Representing editors: Christian DAYÉ

Representing authors: Christian FLECK, Dirk KAESLER, Jennifer PLATT

Critics: Marta BUCHOLC, Andreas HESS

13.05-14.20 Lunch break

14.20-16.00 Parallel sessions:

1. Classification & Categorization: Historical Perspectives on the Sociological Making of Society II room No. 1

Chairs: Léa Renard, Alexander Knoth

Lydia MALMEDIE, Category or categories? The acronym LGBTI in historical perspective

Teruhito SAKO, The term 'gender' in Japanese public debates, 1980-2010: a text-mining analysis

Jiří ŠUBRT, Durkheim's conception of time as a social category – a look back at one theoretical conundrum

Jean TERRIER, “A Society of societies”? Trajectory of a phrase in the history of the social sciences

2. Social and Institutional Conditions of Success in Sociology and the Social Sciences II room No. 9

Chairs: Thibaud Boncourt, Victor Karady

Adriana MICA, The “Merton typology of sources of unintended and unanticipated consequences”: dissociation, obliteration and reinvigoration in sociology of the unintended

Peter Tibor NAGY, Problems of the territorial concentration of canonized elites in the sociological profession

Marco SANTORO, Barbara GRÜNING, A (deceptively) heteronomous field: politics, religion and sociology in Italy, 1945 to 1982

Irina SAVELIEVA, Still alive: sociological classics in contemporary social history

16.00 Conference Closing

ADVISORY BOARD

Peter Baehr, Lingnan University

Janusz Mucha, Akademia Górniczo-Hutnicza w Krakowie

Jennifer Platt, University of Sussex (emerita)

Antoni Sulek, University of Warsaw

Stephen Turner, University of South Florida

Raf Vanderstraeten, Ghent University

Per Wisselgren, Umeå University

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Marta Bucholc, University of Warsaw

Jaroslav Killias, University of Warsaw

João Marcelo Ehlert Maia, School of Social Sciences of the Fundação Getúlio Vargas

Jakub Motrenko (Secretary), University of Warsaw

Joanna Wawrzyniak, University of Warsaw

ORGANIZERS

Research Committee on the History of Sociology, International Sociological Association

Institute of Sociology, University of Warsaw

College of Liberal Arts, University of Warsaw

Polish Sociological Association

ADDITIONAL FUNDING SUPPORT

Faculty of Philosophy and Sociology, University of Warsaw

Rector of the University of Warsaw

University of Warsaw Foundation

RCHS

Research Committee on the History of Sociology
International Sociological Association

POLSKIE TOWARZYSTWO SOCJOLOGICZNE

