

HSE ST. PETERSBURG SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Analytics for Management and Economics Conference

AMEC 2019

September 27-28, 2019

St. Petersburg, Russian Federation

CALL FOR PAPERS

The St. Petersburg School of Economics and Management, National Research University Higher School of Economics (HSE SEM) invites you to submit your research proposals and papers for the second edition of its international scientific event “Analytics for Management and Economics Conference” due to be held in St. Petersburg on September 27-28, 2019 (AMEC 2019).

One of the key distinctions of HSE SEM is a pronounced expertise in analytics applied for management, economics and finance. We expect to encourage a discussion to explore the development of digital and data-driven economy by bringing together again the most prominent experts in academia and business. The upcoming event will put a certain emphasis on digital transformation of business models and commerce, labor markets and public management.

Furthermore, AMEC 2019 organizes two special platforms for young researchers. The HSE-IZA Workshop and the meeting of the HSE SEM School for young researchers held on September 26-27. These two events are a unique opportunity for academic beginners to discuss their studies with peers as well as distinguished professors and receive classes on advanced quantitative methods in labor economics, empirical industrial organization, game theory, business economics and management.

Academic research papers, case studies and work-in-progress are all welcome, while PhD Research, proposals for panel discussions, non-academic contributions and product demonstrations based on the main themes are also encouraged.
