

VALERY VINOGRADOV, Head, PR and Press Department, Financial Ombudsman Office

Graduated from the Institute of Asian and African studies at Moscow state University (ISAA) with a degree in Oriental history, and as a referent-interpreter of the Japanese language. He has an extensive experience in journalism at the Russian state television and radio broadcasting company (VGTRK / Russia 1). For 12 years he worked as a head of the regional Department of VGTRK in Japan for the countries of the Far East and South-East Asia. He was an author of numerous reports and documentaries in the sphere of the politics, economy, and social systems of Japan. Since 2005, he was a head of public relations departments in different economic organizations (the Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs (RSPP), IFD “Kapital”, and the National Association of non-state pension funds (NAPF)).