

23 September 2017 (Saturday)

9.00–11.00 Chair: Joanna Jurewicz

9.00–10.00 Chiara Neri and Tiziana Pontillo (University of Cagliari) – ‘Setu, “bridge”, a connection between places and states in Brahmanical and early Buddhist sources’

10.00–10.30 Cinzia Pieruccini (University of Milan) – ‘Travelling Śākyamuni and the Deer Park’

10.30–11.00 Paola Maria Rossi (University of Milan) – ‘The routes of Vessantara/Viśvāntara: A Buddhist travelling tale’

11.00–11.30 coffee break

11.30–13.30 Chair: Lidia Sudyka

11.30–12.00 Jakub Wilanowski-Hilchen (University of Warsaw) – ‘(Post)colonial homelands. Travels through North-East India in Anil Yādav’s travelogue-reportage Vah bhī koī des hai maharāj’

12.00–12.30 Martin Hřibek (Charles University, Prague) – ‘Journeys of Rabindranath Tagore across Central and Eastern Europe’

12.30–13.00 Michał Panasiuk (University of Warsaw) – ‘Train, boat and steamer – talking about body and sādhana in Bengali dehatattva songs’

13.00–13.30 Magdalena Lipińska (University of Warsaw) – ‘Exile, journey into the unknown, unpredictable destination – fate of the refugee in Arjun by Sunil Gangopadhyay’

13.30–14.00 official closing of the seminar

14.00–15.00 lunch

Scientific Committee:

Martin Hřibek

Cinzia Pieruccini

Tiziana Pontillo

Danuta Stasik

Lidia Sudyka

Organizing Committee:

Anna Trynkowska

Jakub Wilanowski-Hilchen

Jacek Woźniak

Venue:

Old Library Building

University of Warsaw

Main Campus

Room 107 (1st floor)

26/28 Krakowskie Przedmieście

00-927 Warsaw, Poland

Seminar organized with the financial support of:

- Vice-Rector of the University of Warsaw

- Chair of South Asian Studies, Faculty of Oriental Studies of the University of Warsaw

source of the photo:

https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Rekla_Race,_Avaniyapuram,_Madurai.jpg

International Seminar

Journeys and Travellers,
Routes and Destinations
in Indian Literature and Art

Chair of South Asian Studies
Faculty of Oriental Studies
University of Warsaw
21–23.09.2017

PROGRAMME

21 September 2017 (Thursday)

13.30–14.00 official opening of the seminar

14.00–16.00 Chair: Danuta Stasik

14.00–14.30 Joanna Jurewicz (University of Warsaw) – ‘The metaphor of journey in the early Indian thought’

14.30–15.00 Alexander Dubyanskiy (Moscow State University) – ‘Travels of the ancient Tamil bards’

15.00–15.30 Jacek Woźniak (University of Warsaw) – ‘God as a place of destination. On the urge to go and praise the Lord-(of the)-Place in Tirumañkaiyālvār’s Periya tirumolī’

15.30–16.00 Marzenna Czerniak-Drożdżowicz (Jagiellonian University, Cracow) – ‘Travelling to Vaikuṅṭha, crossing the borders of Heaven’

16.00–16.30 coffee break

16.30–18.30 Chair: Cinzia Pieruccini

16.30–17.00 Anna Nitecka (Jagiellonian University, Cracow) – ‘Agastya’s travel to the South in Sanskrit sources’

17.00–17.30 Simona Jandová (Charles University, Prague) – ‘Travels of Kuratti fortune-teller and map of her world’

17.30–18.00 Cezary Galewicz (Jagiellonian University, Cracow) – ‘Down the river with a song: On traveling as transformation and space-producing practice in the riverine temple culture of central Kerala’

18.00–18.30 Soňa Bendíková (Charles University, Prague) – ‘Travelers’ imprints in Kota stories’

18.30 welcome party (Professors’ Club, Oboźna Street)

22 September 2017 (Friday)

9.00–11.00 Chair: Alexander Dubyanskiy

9.00–9.30 Zuzana Špicová (Charles University, Prague) – ‘Crossing the rivers: The metamorphoses of Bhīṣma’s life’

9.30–10.00 Danielle Feller (University of Lausanne) – ‘Travelling through the millennia’

10.00–10.30 Herman Tieken – ‘Moving to and from between Rāmagiri and Alakā: Kālidāsa’s Meghadūta and Rāmāyaṇa 6, 111 and 7, 1-30’

10.30–11.00 Anna Trynkowska (University of Warsaw) – ‘Miraculous journeys in the mahākāvya’

11.00 –11.30 coffee break

11.30–13.30 Chair: Marzenna Czerniak-Drożdżowicz

11.30–12.00 K.K. Geethakumary (University of Calicut) – ‘Candrāpīḍa’s story: From expedition to transformation’

12.00–12.30 David Pierdominici (Sapienza University of Rome) – ‘The painful journey through existences: Cycle of rebirths and satire in Vādirāja’s Yaśodharacarita’

12.30–13.00 Hermina Cielas (Jagiellonian University, Cracow) – ‘Life’s destination in the eyes of a poet’

13.00–13.30 Monika Nowakowska (University of Warsaw) – ‘From fire to fire – the life journey of one mīmāṃsaka, according to Śaṃkara-digvijaya’

13.30–14.30 lunch break

14.30–16.30 Chair: Tiziana Pontillo

14.30–15.00 Lidia Szczepanik-Wojtczak (School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London) – ‘The chase from which poetry sprung. The third chapter of the Kāvyaṃmāṃsā and the emergence of rīti’

15.00–15.30 Aleksandra Turek (University of Warsaw) – ‘A journey through Marwar from the perspective of a camel’

15.30–16.00 Justyna Wiśniewska-Singh (University of Warsaw) – ‘Wanderings in the mysterious space (tilism) in Devakinandan Khatri’s novel Chandrakantā’

16.00–16.30 Justyna Kurowska (Uppsala University) – ‘Inside out – journeys in time and space through the other worlds of Vinod Kumar Shukla’s fantastic novels’

16.30–17.00 coffee break

17.00–19.00 Chair: Martin Hřibek

17.00–17.30 Danuta Stasik (University of Warsaw) – ‘A journey within a journey: The imaginary of home(land) in Bhīṣma Sāhnī’s short story ‘O Harāṃzāde’

17.30–18.00 Monika Browarczyk (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań) – ‘Journeys, transfers, business trips and pilgrimages in Hindi autobiographies by women’

18.00–18.30 Sabrina Ciolfi (University of Milan) – ‘Shooting Bollywood in Italy: Bachna Ae Haseeno, a case study. The impact of foreign locations on Indian tourist’s destination’

18.30–19.00 Lidia Sudyka (Jagiellonian University, Cracow) – ‘A Parsi gara (sari) or distant travels of objects of arts through space, time and cultures’

19.00–20.00 Scientific Committee and Pandanus editorial board meeting