

NITHIN UMAPATHI, Ph.D., Senior Economist, Social Protection and Jobs, World Bank

Nithin Umapathi works on the design of income transfers, social insurance, and labor market policies. He co-authored the EAP flagship report on Aging in East Asia and Pacific and has written on wide-ranging topics, including on social protection, education, early childhood interventions, and econometrics of program evaluation. He has published in academic journals such as, Journal of Applied Econometrics, World Development, Journal of Development Studies, Journal of African Economies, Journal of Development Effectiveness, Asia & the Pacific Policy Studies and Asia Pacific Viewpoint. Over the last few years he has been active in advisory and technical assistance roles in supporting energy subsidy reforms. Graduated from the University College London.