

OLESSYA A. FEOKTISTOVA, Head, Social Finance Center, Financial Research Institute (NIFI)

One of Russia's leading experts on social policy. Author of numerous articles and international reports on targeted social support, identification of eligibility criteria, social treasury, etc.

Author and trainer of several training courses (including international) for state and municipal managers.

His research and professional interests include the improvement of Russia's social policy, the development of State and municipal administration, increasing the efficiency of budget expenditures, including in social sectors, budget reform and reform of state institutions.