

ALEXANDER SHKREBELO, Executive Director, Association of long-term care professionals (Russia)

Expert on social service and long-term care (LTC) in Russian Federation. Since 2018 participates in developing and implementing long-term care system in Russia, being both one of proponents of national reference model of LTC and a co-developer of legal and regulatory documents for modernisation of social care system; participates in working groups and committees for LTC implementation in the Russian regions. Until 2018 managed strategic development and transformation projects in the largest state and non-state enterprises of Russia as a Senior consulting partner in NEO consulting group.