

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT ANALYST

About the company

EWS is an oilfield services company that specializes in works that increasing the production rate and extractability reserves of oil and gas fields. The company carries out works in different regions of the Russian Federation for the major upstream companies. We use the newest technical devices to restore and improve the productivity of wells. The latest equipment and patented modern technologies are used for the production of works.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Overall Purpose:

- Financial tendering modelling; Making a financial model taking into account the risk of lump-sum pricings

Key responsibilities:

- Financial business modelling (budget model, business cases)
- Month end closure
- Financial reporting
- Technical support of finance department

REQUIREMENTS

Obligatory:

- Students with financial/Statistical, Econometrics background
- Excel (Advanced), PowerPoint, English (good)
- Understanding of financial statements (Income statement, Balance sheet)

Optional:

- Interest in financial modeling
- Good communication skills
- Pro-activeness

WORKING CONDITION

- Full time or part time
- Office near Moscow city center
- Period of internship: 01.09.2018 – 31.01.2019

SELECTION PROCEDURE

- Document package review
- Skype interview by the company
- Case (upon Company's request)

The internship is unpaid but successful candidate is entitled to a one-time payment in the amount of €750.

Application deadline 3 June, 2018

Application and more information: <http://stageinrusland.org/>