

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

With multi-disciplinary approach and practice-oriented teaching, the Programme develop the skills to articulate issues of public concern, the alternatives in policy formation, facilitate the adoption implementation of the specific public choices while evaluating their effects. The goal is to prepare the professional analysts capable to address complex public issues. Our graduates make successful analytical and managerial career paths in:

- National, regional and Global Think tanks: Carnegie Moscow Centre, Centre for Political Technologies, Institute of World Politics and International Relations (IMEMO), PIR Centre.
- International Human Rights and Humanitarian Organizations: HR watch, Doctors Without Borders, International Organization on Migration, International Red Cross, Amnesty International.
- Business Associations and large Corporations: Moscow Chamber of Trade and Commerce, Business Russia, ROSATOM, Yandex, LUKOIL.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Portfolio – The applicants are required to submit the set of documents as specified in the Admission Rules (www.hse.ru/en/politanaliz/requirement): A motivation letter and a CV, the academic diploma and the transcript of Bachelors level education, a reference letter, academic writing sample (preferably a thesis or the final work of the previous degree), other publications and other relevant diplomas and certificates.

If you recognized the 'face of the program' write us three reasons why, in your opinion, we chose this particular symbol. Authors of the most thoughtful answers will receive additional attention at the interview.

INFO

101000 Moscow,
11 Myasnitskaya ulitsa, office 529
Phone: +7 (495) 772-95-90 *12487
E-mail (manager): echeklina@hse.ru www.hse.ru/en/ma/politanaliz

Annual enrolment:
50 first-year
students

20 full & partial scholarships

Full time education.
The classes are scheduled mostly from 6 PM
(3 PM for the 1st year of studies) till 9 PM

En

Instruction
in English

2
years study

Master in Political Science

NATIONAL RESEARCH
UNIVERSITY

POLITICAL ANALYSIS AND PUBLIC POLICY

Master's Programme

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Public Policy is an ongoing search for the queries of the most burning challenges of the society governance and the collective decision making for the purpose of Public development. The Master's programme in Political Analysis and Public Policy provide for knowledge, skills and expertise related to:

- Public Policy Agenda-setting, stakeholder analysis, and actor-centred approach to policy making and implementation;
- Social research, data collection and analysis on the Public Policy issues;
- Conflict Analysis and Management;
- Group research and solution-finding work and leadership traits development.

The language of instruction is English which helps to bring together students from all over the world. It is being taught by Professors from different parts of the Globe with diverse professional experience representing the renowned Russian and foreign universities, like Moscow State University (Russia), University of Bern (Switzerland), University of Cambridge (UK), LaTrobe University (Australia) University of Toronto (Canada).

The programme offers its best students an opportunity to participate in academic mobility programmes with the University of Bologna (Italy), Science Po Lyon (France) and other partner universities.

SUMMER SCHOOLS AND EXPEDITIONS

We have a glorious tradition of the intensive week-long outdoor summer school with the students of the program inquiring the various aspects of policy issues that further sharpens the traits and expertise.

SELECTED PROGRAMME COURSES

Core courses: Foundations of Public Policy, Conflict Management, Modern Political Science, Methodology and Research Methods of Political Science, Quantitative methods in social research, Foundations of Social Research: Qualitative and Mixed Methods, Human Rights in Globalizing World, Global Actors in Public Policy.

Elective courses of Public Policy Analysis track: Global Political Economy, Comparative Public Policy Analysis, Social policy: foundations and implementation, Regulation and Reform: Analysis and Policy, Think Tanks as Policy Actors, Anti-Corruption Policy and Reforms, Education and Development, etc.

Elective courses of Human Rights and Democratic Governance track: Human Rights in Non-Western Societies, Minority Rights: comparative practices, Migration and Development, Freedom of Expression and Freedom of Assembly: Comparative Practices, Religion, Governance and Policy-Making, International Mechanisms of Human Rights Protection, Humanitarian Actions, etc.

Course descriptions:
www.hse.ru/en/ma/politanaliz/curriculum

PARTNERS

- University of Bologna (Italy);
- International University College of Turin (Italy);
- University of Sarajevo (Bosnia and Herzegovina);
- University of Lugano (Switzerland);
- University of Turin (Italy);
- Sciences Po Lyon (France).

The Department and its professors are members of several international professional organizations:

- International Political Science Association (IPSA);
- European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR);
- International Public Policy Association (IPPA).

"The Department of Public Policy from the start helps students to work out what they are going to research. The first word that comes to mind is 'possibility'. There are really many possibilities here for Russians and for foreign students. The main thing is to want to make use of them."

Indra Prasetya Adi Nugroho,
Indonesian Ministry of Social Affairs

"Public policy is designed and implemented by both governments and non-state actors, it serves public interests when becomes a matter not only of the state, but also of the self-organized public. We look for MA students, who care about national and global social problems and have a passion to work on their solutions."

NINA BELYAEVA
Academic Supervisor